“ I met my new grandma for the first and only time this summer while visiting Minnesota, and she definitely left an impression on me. She was a beautiful, funny, spitfire of a woman who obviously thrived when surrounded by her family. Although I only met her this one time, I am so blessed to have been able to do so. Some people have a spirit so big that it can create a lifelong impression in such a small amount of time, and that’s definitely Grandma Welter. You will be missed by all who had the privilege of knowing you.

“ I have more memories than I can shake a stick at...speaking of which, Gma had the board of education when I was young and while I am not 100 percent sure I gained much of an education I do now suffer from this thing called respect. As it was used more as an obedience tool than a board of education. Jason Pierce and I buried the board of education somewhere on her old lake property, and as much as I'd like to go see if it's still there I think it's fitting that it will rest in peace like my Grandma Welter. A spit fire woman with the drive and dedication of a lion. I learned many lessons from my grandma, some harder than others, while my boys learned to love DQ Dilly Bars and more desserts than they can shake a stick at. I will forever miss you Grandma, and while this is not goodbye, it's never going to be the same when I am at home. I LOVE YOU GMA WELTER!!
