“ I remember how grandpa told me how he worked at the hospital for years to make the floors sparkle just right. I also remeber all of the get togethers we had and the love and laughter he gave us all. I remeber how he told me he worked on a farm with lots of cattle and then several weeks later. I came over to his and my sister kaylas home. I sat down to eat something at the supper table and there he was laying down for an afternoon nap dreaming and talking in his sleep about the cows getting out of the barn. I just laughed and went into the living room to finish eating. I did not want him to wake up to my laughter. I also remeber when i told him i adopted him as my grandpa and how he had the biggest smile on his face and then he gave me the biggest hug. I just knew then that he loved all of us even though we where not his biological grandchildren. Grandpa will be loved and missed by many and i will miss all of our little talks about farming and animals. Your with your wife know and favorite dog ginger. Rest in peace grandpa. We love you.
