

Henry B. Lindberg

June 8, 1932 - June 11, 2012

Henry was born June 8, 1932 in Starbuck, MN, the son of the late Olaf and Mollie 'Scribner' Lindberg. The family moved to a farm in the Fort Ripley area when Henry was a young boy. He attended country school through the eight grade. He then worked as a grain truck driver for a few seasons in North Dakota. Henry entered the US Army on June 12, 1953 and was honorably discharged on May 5, 1955. He continued in the US Army reserve until 1961. Henry was united in marriage to Ada Siegel on May 10, 1959. The couple divorced in 1994. Henry farmed most of his life in the Fort Ripley area. He also worked at Larson Boats and later at Crestliner in Little Falls, MN. Henry was a talented musician. He could play the guitar, violin, fiddle and the accordion. He also enjoyed singing and dancing. Every year, he grew a large vegetable garden and shared his harvest. Most of all, Henry enjoyed socializing with family, friends and neighbors.

Henry is survived by his sons, John 'Cindy' Lindberg of Fort Ripley, MN and Alan 'Marilyn' Lindberg of AR; daughters, Lori 'David' Mindermann of Red Lake Falls, MN and Shelly Lindberg & husband, Flynn Dustrud of Madison, WI; brothers, Richard, Donald & Joseph Lindberg; sisters, Helen Vallaid, Ellen Lebrie, Irene Garrison, Donna Kelm, Mary Copa and Carol Hunter; 10 grandchildren.

Henry was preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Orville & Eugene Lindberg; a sister, Shirley James.
