

Herbert Turner

September 27, 1937 - April 2, 2007

Herb was born September 27, 1932 in rural Randall, MN to the late Harold & Mathilda "Tillie" Turner and lived all his life on the family farm. He attended Little Falls Community High School and then served in the Minnesota National Guard for 8 years. Herb was united in marriage to Harriet J. Sanders on August 20, 1959 in the Randall Presbyterian Church. The couple farmed in Darling Township. Herb was a member of the Randall Presbyterian Church where he served as an elder and deacon. He also served on the board at Consolidated Telecommunications Company in Brainerd, MN for 29 years; board member of Darling Township for 30 years; member of the Randall Fire Board and a former director of Randall State Bank. Herb was a member of various community organizations including the Randall Sportsmen Club; Twin Trails Snowmobile Club; Morrison County Deer Hunters Association. He enjoyed farming, hunting, fishing, gardening, growing roses and bird watching. Herb especially loved spending time with his family, friends and 4-wheeling around the farm with his grandchildren.

Herb Turner is survived by his beloved wife, Harriet; daughter, Jill Case & husband, Wesley of Belvidere, IL; son, Jeffrey Turner & wife, Dawn of Little Falls, MN; grandchildren, Erin & Holly Case and Nick & Ryan Turner; brother, George Turner & wife, Arlene of Randall, MN and many nieces and nephews. Herb was preceded in death by his parents.

Casketbearers will be Robert Helmerick, Steven Kobliska, Clayton Sanders, Emery Strack, Rick Turner and Kervin Warnke.
