Burial will take place in the Parish Cemetery. Visitation will be from 4 to 7 P.M. on Friday and 9 to 10 A.M. on Saturday all at the Shelley Funeral Chapel in Pierz. Caring for Herman and his family is the LeMieur Funeral Home in Pierz, MN.

Herman M, Hoheisel was born on August 18, 1941 in Pierz, MN to the late Ben and Katie (Tschida) Hoheisel. He grew up in Morrill, MN, attending country school and then Foley High School. He was united in marriage to Karen Marshik on October 16, 1962 at St. John's Catholic Church in Lastrup, MN. The couple moved 19 times in their first 20 years of marriage and eventually settled in Pierz. He worked as a bus driver, owned H& K Lawn Service, Pierz Lumber, and the City of Pierz. In 1970 the couple bought the Star Café and then the Pierz Café. They eventually bought the Old Bank restaurant and moved to a farm south of Pierz. They owned the Morrill Liquor store for 2 years before it burned down. They rebuilt the store and sold it. At that time, they moved west of Buckman and purchased the Knotty Pine restaurant which they owned and operated for 12 years. They moved and stayed in the Pierz community. Herman was Chief of Police for the city of Pierz from 1963 to 1965. He then took a job as a Morrison County Deputy from 1965-1971.

Herman returned to Pierz and was chief of police in 1971, retiring in 1994. After retiring as a police officer, Herman would help local community businesses such as Barrett Ag as a truck driver as well as the Pierz co-op. The couple enjoyed traveling, hunting in Wyoming, their motorcycles and 4-wheeling. They spent their winters in Arizona. In the summer Herman would be in their Pierz home and took great pride in his lawn and garden. He loved to have his friends over for their yearly turtle feed. Happy hour at the Red Rooster was a must and always visited whoever he could. He loved old western country music. Herman was a member of St. Joseph Church in Pierz, Knights of Columbus, and Pierz Lions. He loved to be in the community helping with whatever he could.

Herman is survived by his daughter, Michelle (Steven) Bochow; son, Michael (Donnelle) Hoheisel; sister, Arlene Laffin; sisters-in-law, Mary Kay Webeck and Arlie Epsky; grandchildren, Ben Bochow, Holly Bochow (Jake Meyer), Hanna (Jason) Lessard, Adam (Heidi) Hoheisel, Emma (Andrew) Schmidbauer, Jack Hoheisel (Kylee Latterell) and Amanda Hoheisel; great-grandchildren, Kylee Marshik, Josephine Marshik, Madilynn Jacobson and Emily Lessard.

Herman was preceded in death by his wife, Karen Hoheisel; parents, Benard and Katie Hoheisel; brother, Robert Hoheisel; sisters, Doris Schyma and Mary Przybilla; brothers-in-law, Tom Laffin, Ed Epsky, Richard Webeck, Harvy Virnig, Galen (Fritz) Przybilla and sister-in-law. Ellen Virnig.

“ Sending prayers to Shelly, Mike and the rest of the family. My 1st memories of Herman are of him being my bus driver for kindergarten and then as being Shelly's dad, then a cop, then owner of Old Bank and the Knotty Pine, then as Gpa to Ben and Holly and Hannah. His laugh was infectious and his stories are legendary. RIP Herman.
