

Herman F. Kuehne

January 9, 1916 - March 16, 2007

Herman Fredrich Kuehne was born on January 9, 1916 in Swanville, MN to the late Herman P. and Martha (Dettler) Kuehne. He was baptized on February 13, 1916 at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Swanville. Herman lived in Richland County, Montana from 1918-1923. He was confirmed on March 24, 1929 at Emanuel Lutheran Church in Long Prairie Township. Herman attended School District 154 in Long Lake. He farmed the family farm in Burnhamville Township, Todd County, Minnesota. Herman was united in marriage to Lenora E. Asmus on September 5, 1943 at Emanuel Lutheran Church in Long Prairie Township. They lived on the Kuehne family farm until 1979, where they retired to Long Lake and built a home. During that time they enjoyed retirement. Herman did a lot of fishing and they often traveled together on the Utopia Tours for several years. After Lenora's health started to fail, they left the Long Lake home and moved to Long Prairie, MN. Lenora passed away on October of 2000. Herman continued to live in Long Prairie where one could often find him walking every day until 2005, when his health declined. He was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Swanville, MN. Herman served on the A.S.C Board, Swanville School Board for 18 years and St. Peter's Lutheran Church Board. He was very active with the Swanville Senior Center for many years where he loved to play cards. On Sunday afternoons a person could usually find him at the Long Prairie Nursing Home visiting with people. Herman is survived by his two sons, Tom (Bonnie) Kuehne of Burtrum, MN and Gordon (Marsha) of Austin, MN; sister, Erna

(Jim) Schwanke of Grey Eagle, MN; five grandchildren, Scott Kuehne, Kris Primus, Heidi Jo Loven, Aleisha Leger and Erika Kuehne; seven great-grandchildren, Mitchel, Lacey, Lexi, Nicole, Carter, Tomi Lynn and Ben. He was preceded in death by his parents, Herman P. and Martha Kuehne; wife, Lenora Kuehne; brothers, Otto, Rudy, and Herb Kuehne and his sister, Emma Swan. Serving as pallbearers will be Pete Kircher, David Kircher, Paul Mueller, Loren Weick, George Hulinsky and Art Bliese.
