“ Ida was my little sister and being next in age to her, we were very close and did a lot of things together. We grew up without a TV so played indoor and outdoors games all day, when our chores on the farm were done. Tag, catch, anti-I-over, catching fireflies in the dark etc. were just a few of our fun times. Ida always had a good sense of humor and was kind to everyone she met. She will be dearly missed but knowing that she up in heaven with her Denny, our Mom and Dad and our brothers and sisters is of comfort to all of us at this time.

I am Ida's 8 years older, so I always felt I needed to protect her. I used to have nightmares she got hurt in some way. She was the size of my last doll, my parents gave me on my 10th birthday.,I learned to sew at a young age, so made dresses with matching panties. It is very sad she is no longer with us, but know she is in God's care. Margo & Bill Barr
