Ione was born on October 17, 1922 on the family farm in Genola, MN to the late Frank and Theresa (Flicker) Gruber. She grew up in Genola, MN where she attended a one room school house. Ione walked to school everyday and would get a ride with neighbors on the sleigh in the winter. She attended High School in Little Falls, MN and after graduation attended nurses training in St. Paul at St. Mary's. Ione was united in marriage to Pryer "Robbie" Roberts on December 17, 1948 in San Francisco, CA. She worked all her life as a nurse. In her early years she was a private duty nurse for the wealthy and later was employed at Laguna Honda Hospital in San Francisco where she retired from. Ione was very proud of her nursing career, to which she made many life long friends. When Ione was not working she enjoyed spending summers at the lake, sewing, painting flowers, and volunteering as a nurse at Senior Centers and Girl Scout troops. Ione loved San Francisco and she also enjoyed many wonderful years of retirement in the wine country. She was a very proud mother and grandmother that will be dearly missed. Ione was lucky to be born into such a wonderful family, who has continued to care for and support her in her last years in Pierz.

Ione is survived by children, Kirk (partner Nurit) Roberts of Jacumba, CA and Joan (Steve) DeBella of Vernon, BC, Canada; brothers, Eugene (Milly) Gruber of Genola, MN and Fred (Marge) Gruber of Pierz, MN; sisters, Lavina Langer, Delrose "Dellie" Stoll, and Lila (Norman) Thielen; 6 grandchildren, 6 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews and their families.
