In 1983, Jack earned the title of Mr. Western Colorado, showcasing his talent with his tamed buffalo, "Pawnee." A true cowboy and farmer, Jack was one of the original "good old boys," known for his authenticity and dedication to his roots. His love for animals was boundless, and throughout his life, he cared for a diverse array of creatures, including buffaloes, horses, snakes, goats, chickens, pigs, and even zebras. Jack was a remarkable individual whose spirit and faith were as strong as his determination. Jack's commitment to his faith was a cornerstone of his life. He loved Jesus and was dedicated to sharing his faith with those around him, especially his children. His athletic prowess was evident in his high school years as a track star, and he demonstrated resilience from an early age, having survived a severe motorcycle accident at age 12. Jack's warmth and friendship extended to everyone he met, whether they were down on their luck or prominent figures. He had a unique ability to connect with people from all walks of life and spoke his mind when he felt it was necessary, never backing down from standing up for what he believed was right. Those close to Jack knew him for his unwavering commitment to those in need. Whether it was through offering financial assistance to struggling families, donating bales of hay, or loaning out his tractor, he had an innate ability to see the needs of others and acted swiftly and quietly to meet them. His generosity extended to friends, neighbors, and strangers alike, leaving a lasting impact on all who had the privilege of crossing paths with him. As an entrepreneur and creative thinker, Jack loved making business deals and sharing stories of his many adventures and humorous experiences. His passion for life and unwavering principles made him a beloved figure in his community. Jack Eric McCoy will be remembered for his boundless spirit, his loving nature, and his steadfast commitment to his values and family. He will be greatly missed, but his memory will continue to inspire all who knew him.

A friend just sent me the notification of Jack passing away, I am so sorry, he was a long time friend, he was an escort in my Miss Adam's County East and West in Thornton, Colorado in 1983. We became longtime friends , in 1995 we visited his horse camp, our grandchildren had a great two day visit and they had a blast, he was the best host, in 2012 we stopped to visit him again, we had a great visit, the camp had not opened yet for the summer, again, we caught up on our lives and hoped he could come visit us in Colorado . He was such a wonderful man, to young to be gone, my thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. He will be missed, my love , Carol Beckler

“ Our sincere condolences for Jack’s family and friends. He sure was a great guy through and through. Our son Ryley K. was a former camper at Circle R and Ryley loved every year he was there. Met some great friends and especially got to know Jack. He was a very kind man and did so well with his ranch and the kids that went there. He will be missed dearly.
