

Jack Flavin

July 13, 1985 - July 8, 2019

Jack Flavin, 33-year-old resident of Little Falls, MN passed away Monday, July 8, 2019. A Celebration of Life Ceremony will take place from 4-8 P.M. on July 12, 2019 at the Shelley Funeral Chapel in Little Falls, MN with a time of sharing and remembrance at 7:00 P.M. all on Friday at the Shelley Funeral Chapel in Little Falls, MN. Funeral arrangements are with the Shelley Funeral Chapel in Little Falls, MN.

Jack Michael Flavin was born on July 13, 1985 to Shawn and Barb Flavin of Little Falls, MN. Jack attended Little Falls Community High School and graduated with the class of 2004. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Minnesota, Duluth.

Jack worked in the restaurant industry but his love for the outdoors drew him to a career in landscaping and arborist work. Jack had many interests and passions; his biggest being music. He loved live music, especially blue grass; he also was an avid collector of agates and other stones. He loved to involve everyone around him in his joy of polishing and showing off his best agates. Jack was an enthusiastic fan of baseball and football and able to tell you facts and stats about his favorite teams and players. He enjoyed fantasy leagues with his friends and was always up for a debate about "Who Was Who" in the world of sports. Jack was not someone you would want to watch a movie with because you were bound to be asked 1,000 questions WHILE the movie was going on!

Jack loved spending time with family, especially his nieces and nephews. He enjoyed bringing them fishing, introducing them to his new puppy Butters, taking them rock hunting and was always game for an adventure to a pumpkin patch, hay ride, or haunted house as long as it involved family. He especially enjoyed spending time with the love of his life, Amanda. Together they loved their new puppy Butters, fixing up their house and yard, morel mushroom hunting, and camping. They shared a love of cooking and Jack was Amanda's sous chef in the kitchen.

Left to cherish Jack's memory are his mom and dad, Shawn and Barb Flavin; his love, Amanda Johnson; siblings Mike (Katie) Flavin of Buffalo, MN, Missy (Paul) Anez of Little Falls, MN, and Josh (Leesa Ching) Flavin of Wausau, WI; nieces and nephews Alec, Ellie, Erik, Logan, Abe, Ayla, Crew and Finley; grandfathers Marv Welna and Dennis Flavin; grandmother Helen Larson; and many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Jack was preceded in death by his grandmothers, Marcy Flavin and Shirley Welna and aunt, Denise (Flavin) Willenbring.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred and will be donated by the family to a drug addiction awareness program.

“ There are no words to say other than define Jack as a very genuine friend. I've had the privilege to know him since I was 5, and he would always be the one to make every one laugh. I didn't get the chance to do as much as everyone else did (friends) with him, but every time we saw each other it was great to catch up. He meant a ton to a ton of people because his spirit was so amazing and captivating. The world lost a great soul, but I have faith that he'll be hanging around and making sure the closest people in his life know he is still with him. To his parents, who have always been just as kind to me, siblings, family members, friends, and fellow classmates, my heart is with all of you. Prayers and hugs are being sent.

Jack- you will be missed more than you could ever know. Thank you for being the person you were. Your heart showed it, and it's one that will never be forgotten. Thank you for always being a friend!

P.s. have fun where ever you are, and keep the smiles coming 😊

“ Jack, no matter who you were hanging with in high school or outside of school, you always talked to everyone. You made people laugh historically so many times in class. As we got older, still you would talk to any one of your classmates you seen. That my friend was because you had a big heart. I dont know what happen but I'm saddened by this. I hope you keep it up when you get to your new resting place Jack. RIP.
