Bebiskaneyaash, James Hill, Jr. was born in Cloquet, Minnesota to James, Sr. and Mildred Hill. He grew up near Cloquet, MN and when he was in his teens James moved to Chicago, Ill and other areas of the country working various jobs. He had a strong work ethic and made sure he took care of himself and others. James was an excellent boxer and this earned him both respect and fear by others. His stories and tales of these events are legend. Over the years he softened and became a role model to his family and community. Always the provider, James became a segregate father and grandfather to many. He enjoyed giving people thoughtful gifts that would benefit their lives and make things easier for them. He will be greatly missed by all.
