

James Long

May 14, 1963 - October 18, 2009

James (“Jim” “Fru”) Long was born on May 14, 1963 in Little Falls to Jane (Osga) and the late Eugene Long. He graduated from Sartell High School. Jim was employed by the United States Postal Service in Sartell for the past 20 years. He previously worked for Red’s Transfer Service, United Mailing, Speedee Delivery Service, and did seasonal work for Prairie Farm Co. of Rice, MN for nearly 30 years. Jim enjoyed watching games on TV with his many friends, playing sports, as well as attending sporting events. He was an avid gardener and could produce the biggest and the best tomatoes, cucumbers, and peppers around. He took great pride in canning, freezing, drying, and pickling all his vegetables. Jim also enjoyed his annual hunting and fishing trips with his friends. Jim was dearly loved by many and will be greatly missed.

Jim is survived by his mother, Jane; sisters, Joan (Philip) Frerich of Rice, MN and Joy Gardner of Opole, MN; nieces and nephews, Darren, Elisa, Jessica, Rachel, Justin, Tyler, and Maria Frerich; aunts, uncles, and many friends. He was preceded in death by his father, Eugene Long; grandparents, Frank and Dorothy Long, and Joseph Osga; and uncle, Frank Long.
