

James Plaisance

August 3, 1941 - December 24, 2008

James Plaisance was born on August 3, 1941 to Irvin and Betty (Trusty) Plaisance in Owatonna, MN. He was united in marriage to Vicky Platt in New Ulm, MN on July 26, 1980. James attended Willmar Technical College in the automotive service technician program. Upon graduation the couple moved to Onamia, MN where he worked for NAPA and later Isle Automotive. James enjoyed deer hunting, camping, and fishing near the Gun Flint Trail. Leading the crew on various trips with his Honda Gold Wing and snowmobiling was how he liked to spend his time. He will be greatly missed by his family. James is survived by his wife, Vicky of Onamia, MN; son, Wade (Ava) Conway of Palasade, MN; daughters, Jane, Maria, Sheri, & Amy; brothers, Donald Plaisance of Elizabethtown, KY, & John Plaisance of Frederick, MD; sisters, Patti (Paul) Schuett, & Pam (John) Fischer; & many grandchildren.
