“ My husband, Jim, and I extend our deepest sympathies to Jim's family. We both have worked with Jim and I went to high school with him too. When I worked with him at Hardee's, he was a very hard worker who made the job a lot of fun! When we would close, he always brought his boombox so we would have a rockin' time cleaning up. He was always such a nice and kind guy with his sometimes quiet, shy manner and great smile! He will be missed.##imported-begin##Becky (Lasneski) and Jim Walter##imported-end##

“ Angels above look over this man,
Guide him through and take his hand.
A Message of peace you must bring,
By opening your hearts and your wings.

Show him the pain that we all share,
Show him that we loved and we cared.
Open his eyes to a world Unknown,
Remind him he will never be alone.

Touch the heart that still beats inside,
Walk in the open and no need to hide.
Walk the Heavens and see the light,
Take comfort in knowing that we are all right.

Wait for the day when we all can see,
Your smiling face stare back at me.
Together we sit with each other,
Waiting for our Sisters, Father and our Mother.

him~###imported-begin###Barthel Household###imported-end###
