“ We are going to miss Janet. She was the best next door neighbor our family could have had, so kind and friendly. Janet would share the fresh fruit and vegetables from her family farm. She and Wanda put up with our barking dog and the girls stray balls never failed to land in their yard and she never had a harsh word for Rae or Laura. Janet's house was a favorite on Halloween when our girls were little, Janet and Wanda handed out full cans of pop and microwave popcorn. Janet and Wanda attended both our girls' high school graduation parties and put up with the noise and commotion every time we had a backyard gathering. Needless to say Janet will be missed by our family and the whole neighborhood. We are grateful to have known Janet.
