“ I was lucky to marry into the Pangrac Family and will never forget Jeanette. Vernon and Jeanette welcomed us at their farm when we took the kids on a cross country motorhome trip from California. Vernon hit the jackpot when he married her. She had that special gift that made you feel loved and warm in her presence. I know it is hard to describe but I think anyone that met her will know what I am talking about. I attached a few photos from our trip. She will be missed.

“ I had the most wonderful opportunity to spend my summers on the farm with Vernon and Jeanette when I was little. One year I flew back before the rest of the family and stayed for a month. Jeanette had me busy taking bread soaked in milk to feed the kittens in the loft of the barn and helping out in the kitchen to feed all the boys. She was so loving and caring and at the same time she was such a strong (and tall) woman that I wanted to be just like her. What an amazing woman to keep up with everything at the farm for all those years! When we left that summer, I got to pick out a kitten to take home. I remember my Dad found an old Kaiser that he bought and we towed it all the way back to California. Looking out the back window, we watched as Daiquiri was jumping up in the air chasing moths. When they came out to California years later, they didn't recognize the cat as one from the farm because it was so much bigger than their barn cats...so they called her "the Minnesota cat that went to California and made it big!"

When I was able to go back and bring my kids, they got to have the farm experience as well. Jeanette was so good with my son which I know she had lots of practice and my daughter was helping out right by Jeanette's side. My kids still refer to the farm as the place where they got to ride quads, check out the airplanes and where they got to see a snake barf up a frog (cuz they had to keep messing with it). What great memories.

I'm happy today to think of Vernon and Jeanette together again and I'm sure in heaven they have a great big farm and are living happily ever after. Love you always and forever!

“ I have wonderful memories through the years with Aunt Jeanette. When I was younger we would go to the farm and Aunt Jeanette would take me out to collect raspberries on the vine. My sister Danette and I would take asphalt tiles from the roof and "ride" Hobo the Saint Bernard around the farm. When my family traveled in our motor home to visit, Jeanette and I had a wonderful conversation about how she saved her money from her job to buy her boat. She also said she was so proud of me because I reminded her of herself. I was super independent as a kid and wasn't afraid of doing anything. That was Aunt Jeanette. I love the photo of all of the family with their archery pose. I also took archery and loved it. I have so many wonderful memories of her laugh and how she took care of her men! A life well lived. I love you Jeanette!
