“ First of all, we need to share our deepest sympathy to the entire family, friends, coworkers and all those who knew Jeff and loved him as Joe and I have. He was a sweetheart. His infectious smile could brighten anyone's day. Just to share one of the many stories about Jeff, Joe and I went to Portland to see our daughter Anne and we asked Jeff to house sit which he did gladly. However, when we got home Jeff told me he bought us a new toilet seat and one of his cousins had told me what a cute house we had. Well when we got home Jeff fessed up that he had a party while we were gone so I guess he qualified as one of the kids. We told him then that that's what our kids do when we were gone. He helped Joe in so many ways. His passing leaves such a hole in our hearts but our faith reassures us that he is in the hands of God. Our deepest sympathy to all. God Bless You.

“ George, Kathy and family, our greatest sympathy to you all. We just can't begin to imagine the heartache this has caused. Jeff was such a sweet person, when he came into Bowlus Gas, I could always count on a quick smile, joking, patient as we waited on him. Always polite, a son every parent dreams of. His favorite drink to purchase was the vitamin water. I will really miss him. How can tears run down our faces when we remember Jeff and yet a smile crosses our face of the fond memories of him?
