“ Jerry always seemed to have a smile on his face, something funny to say, or a story to tell. He and Jan were like my second parents before Jes and I enlisted in the Air Force. We were always hanging out at their house or ours just a hundred yards, or so, away. There was practically a path worn through the grass between our houses. No matter what we were up to, Jerry always seemed to get a chuckle out it. My fondest memories of Jerry are from Jes and Kari's wedding and the shenanigans we got into that day. I am deeply saddened by Jerry's passing and my sincerest condolences go out to Jan, Jes, and Seth, as well as Jerry's additional family and friends. May you rest in peace, Jerry.

*Dear Jan and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Jerry, was a good man! I would visit his place of business once a year (for jewelry cleaning). Jerry always took the time to come out and visit with me. We'd visit about old things and new things. He was always so pleasant to visit with. I'll miss his kindness, big heart, smile, and genuine soul!
Love to you all!
