“ Pat and family, Dayre and I were heartbroken 💔 to hear of Jerry's passing. Never a time went by when he'd put his arm around me and call me his girlfriend, and tell me I couldn't tell Dayre, when he was always right there too. His humor was endless. He loved talking about his grandchildren and the time he got to spend with them. Dayre will miss Jerry telling him that the Sobieski HS football team beat the Miami Dolphins 😊 Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. 🙏🙏🙏🙏

“ I met Jerry when I worked at Fleet. He was quiet, but only so customers wouldn't hear his smart remarks. 😊 He was so kind and easy to get a laugh from. He used to come to a cafe I cooked at and I would tease him, "you mean you drove all the way to Randall for a corndog?" He'd say, "shut up!" 🙊 We would laugh, and with Pat there to keep us in line, we'd catch up on life. I'm so sorry to hear of his passing. He and Pat were quite the pair, and he loved to be with the grandkids. So glad we had that short visit at Wal-Mart...who knew it would be our last buddy? God Bless your whole family💕💕

“ Our condolences to Jerry’s family. Jerry and I were High School classmates in Little Falls, and we both joined the Air Force at the same time. The thing is we didn’t know that we were both going to be assigned to Cannon AFB in New Mexico. One day while walking down the street we happened to recognize each other from a distance, I don’t know who was more surprised to find out we were assigned to the same base. It was great having a friend so far away from home and we hung out a lot together. Eventually, I married my childhood sweetheart from Little Falls and spend the better part of 40 years overseas, most of that in Indonesia where we still reside. But, every few years when we would come home for a couple month visit we would run into Jerry, either at Coborn’s or more recently at Fleet, and not unlike running into him at Cannon AFB it was always a highlight for my trip home to see an old friend. So, our next time home we are going to miss running into Jerry, we will miss the engaging spirit he had and will miss catching on old times. But the good times we had still linger on and I expect they will for a long time to come.

“ Our family hearts are so broken right now for you all. We have known Jerry for a few years. Made our son a beautiful toy box years ago with his name on it. Jerry worked with Joe back at Fleet Supply and was always cracking jokes and had a smart comment for anything you can imagine. He loved his grandchildren most of all and cherished the time he spent with them. He had a kind heart and will be missed by so many. Love to the family.

I'm gonna miss Jerry when I go into Fleet. I used to work with him there and he was the hardest worker and always had that infectious smile on his face to brighten up anyone's day. You'll be missed by so many, Jerry!
