He also enjoyed watching his family's farming adventure expand with the addition of Sobiech Farm's Pig Barn. John loved a good ball game, from his time playing with the Sobieski Skis to watching Vikings and Twins with his sons. John was an avid outdoorsman. He shared his love each deer season with his sons and hunting crew. He also helped to educate the next generation by being an active firearm safety instructor for more than 30 years. John was an active member of the Catholic Church in both Sobieski and Flensburg. He was active as an Eucharist Minister, usher and lector within the church.
