“ I will miss my aunt Jettie...so many memories!!! Eggs, chickens, cows, "Skippy" the pony, kittens and dogs, softball, music, food, Kool-Aid, beer, and camping...family and friends... 6 weeks ago Richard and I acquired a calico kitten from her. She had 5 extra toes and was the runt (that's why we picked her) so we named her digit. We renamed her to Joretta...she is precious, just like her namesake. Our deepest sympathy to my cousins.

“ Joretta, we will remember you fondly for so many things: your hardworking life, your kindness and caring, your great sense of humor and your neighborliness. They are all the same qualities of Marty, your daughter and my good neighbor. We'll also always remember you for our wonderful pets, Skippy and Daisy, sister dogs who were born on your farm. Joretta, rest in peace. You richly deserve everlasting peace.
