Joseph Adam Bednar was born in Waconia, MN to Laura (Holter) and the late Joseph Bednar the 5th on March 17, 1983. He grew up in Little Falls MN with his mother Laura. Joseph was born adventurous and was always looking to have a good time with his friends and family. As a young boy, he spent a lot of time fishing and was known as the fishboy/bartender. That passion carried on to his adulthood. He could be seen casting a line at the Mississippi many days in the summer. He also enjoyed boating with friends on his days off from tree trimming. Joe loved his time being a father and playing with kids, he often would grab a basketball and coach them on how to be like Steph Curry, his favorite player. Joe lived for the moment, he lived life to the fullest any chance he got. He loved making people laugh, above all, even at the expense of making himself the butt of a good joke. He loved to see his friends and family happy and made a point to include everyone in on the fun. He will be missed an incredible amount and will live on in our hearts forever.

Joseph is survived by his mother, Laura Hoppe; step-father, Andy Hoppe; son,

Dexter Johnson; brother, Jacob Lambrecht (Taran Skwira); nephews, William, Oliver, Henry; girlfriend, Brittany Schmitz; sons, Liam, Lucas, Layne and many step-siblings, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends.

Joseph was preceded in death by his father, Joseph Bednar Sr.; grandfather, Clyde Holter; grandmother, Nancy Kangis.
