I was a class mate of KEITHS in Prescott WI. Every 5 years I try and search for his whereabouts. For our class reunion. I'm truly sad that an Obituary is what brought him to me. My name is Joel Reis. He was so kind. I remember him saying , "he was having problems getting into the coast guard due to his ears". He was so strong, kind , intelligent. He came from meager backgrounds like me. I always thought if 1 person could use the G.I. benefits to get an education. It was him. So happy to see his military pictures. Wish I could contact him direct. GOD SPEED KIETH. JOEL REIS PRESCOTT WI CLASS OF 79 .

“ To the best uncle EVER! My protector, my sheild, role as my dad, my friend! I am still in shock and can't believe you're truly gone FOREVER! I am missing you already, your smile, laugh, the passion you had over everything like something didn't go just right you would vent. Now to the people that really knew you will understand that! Haha! I am missing you just pulling into the yard to come visit and play with my kids. You have NO idea how dearly missed you are. Yes i admit that i gave you a lot of grief but that just showed you how much i really loved you! RIP my uncle, worrier! Love your Lacey Lee. 🥹🥹🥹🥹🥹🥹
