

Kenneth "Kenny" Anderson

December 23, 1942 - June 19, 2025

Kenneth (Kenny) Anderson, 82-year-old resident of Little Falls, MN passed away on June 19th, 2025. A Celebration of Life will be held at the Little Falls VFW Post 1112 at 1:00 pm on Tuesday, July 1st. Kenny was a big MN Twins fan, so if you have a t-shirt, jersey or hat, feel free to wear it to the celebration of life. Caring for Kenny and his family is the LeMieur Funeral Home in Little Falls, MN.

Kenny was born in Little Falls MN on December 23, 1942, to the late Gordon and Sylvia Anderson. He worked many different jobs as a young man and started Woody's Woodchucks over 50 years ago. He did tree work and hauled wood to the greater Twin Cities area. He continued to work right up to the day he passed away. Kenny loved anything outdoors and camped in many spots throughout Minnesota. He was an avid hunter and loved his time with family at the hunting cabin in Northome, MN. He also enjoyed and played baseball, softball, pool, horseshoes, bowling and cribbage. He just loved to compete.

Kenny is survived by his sons, David (Jill) Anderson of Baxter MN, and Richard Anderson of Elk River MN; daughter, Judi Anderson of Elk River MN; brother, Ralph (Nancy) Anderson; and sister, Joanne (Dean) Doroff. Kenny had 6 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Gordon and Sylvia Anderson; brother, Leroy Anderson and sister-in-law Gayle; sons, Steven and Kevin Anderson; niece, Kalli Doroff.
