

Laura M. Larson

May 17, 1914 - May 30, 2007

Laura was born May 17, 1914 in Woodworth ND to the late Anton & Anne Fisher. She grew up in and attended school through the 11th grade in Woodworth, ND. The family bought a farm in Darling Township and moved there on Oct. 18, 1931. She helped establish the family farm for a year and then returned to school, graduating from Little Falls High School in 1933. Laura was united in marriage to Howard C. Larson on September 13, 1936 in Immanuel Lutheran Church in Darling Township. The couple moved out of the area while Howard was in the US Army, but returned to Little Falls upon his discharge. Laura was a wonderful wife and mother. The couple was blessed when their son, James was born in 1951 and married his high school sweet heart, Judy Nuehring in 1972. In 1983, Howard passed away after a successful career operating a car repair shop in Little Falls. In 1990, Laura was again blessed when Jim & Judy's little girl, Kimberly arrived from Korea. She was a member of Bethel Lutheran Church in Little Falls and was active in WELCA, Martha Circle and the sewing ladies. Laura enjoyed knitting, crocheting and making quilts.

Laura M. Larson is survived by her son, James Larson & wife, Judy of Aitkin, MN; a grand-daughter, Kimberly Armstrong & husband, Allan of Ft. Hood, TX; sister in law, Vi Fisher of Oklahoma City, OK.

Laura was preceded in death by her husband, Howard; brother, Denzel Fisher; sisters, Margaret Fisher and Violet Juelson.

Casketbearers will be Jim & Douglas Nuehring, Andrew Dahlen, David Wells,

Keith Schumann and Allan Armstrong.
