“ Uncle Larry, I can't believe it's almost been a year since we lost you. My girls, especially Jade, ask about you a lot. They don't really understand that we won't get to see you again until we are called home too. I miss you. A lot. I'm really looking forward to seeing you again. Please give great-grandma my love.

Aunt Linda Little Larry, Molly, and Victor, I really wish we were closer. I miss all of you too. I know this is a hard time, but please remember he's still here. In each of our hearts. It takes a pretty amazing person to have that much of an effect on any one person much less countless more. He went above and beyond the call of duty. But, after all, that is what he was best at. I love you guys, My heart, soul, and prayers are with all of you.

Love,

Lindsay, Travell, Jade, Ruby, and Ivory##imported-begin##Lindsay Williams##imported-end##

“ I wish I could have attended but the distance seems to get in the way of everything. I remember only seeing Larry a few times as a child but over the years I've always asked my Dad how he's doing.
I'm sorry he's gone and I wish I could have known him better.##imported-begin##Linda Freeman (Carl)##imported-end##

“ It has been decades since I last saw Larry but I will always remember the good times we had in Davis, living just a couple of blocks away on I Street. You were one of a kind. In viewing your video tribute I recognized some of that youthful Larry I recall, even in the more recent photos.

I pray that God watches over all of Larry's family, especially your Mom and Dad. I hope Larry gets a chance to meet my family that are already in heaven and that he tells them "Hi" for me. I still miss them. God bless you.##imported-begin##Jim Mustard##imported-end## “ Linda, Larry and family, Mollie and family and Victor, Pleae accept our deepest sympathy. Larry was a man who throughout his illness kept positive and upbeat. I never heard him complain. He took life day by day and made the best of it. May he rest in the arms of Christ. God bless all of you.

“ My heart goes out to all in the family and I know that God will hold his hand as he walks with him to heaven. God is there and within your heart, you will find peace and I pray for the sorrow and pain to be relieved.
