“ When I was showing my horse at the Anoka County Fair. Grandma and grandpa came to see me do a few events. I was doing the bareback class. The arena was muddy from the rain so it was hard to stay on from my horse trying to avoid all the puddles. When it came time to canter she leaped over a puddle. I fell off and landed in mud. I never saw grandpa move so fast in my entire life. I hit the ground and the next thing I knew my grandpa was picking me up and throwing me back on my horse. He slaps the butt of the horse and says "keep going. You can do this" it surprised me. I never thought that this old man could jump a fence that fast and pick me up by himself and throw me on my horse. He truly was caring, strong, full of surprises and never was one to be underestimated. you will be missed! love you both grandma and grandpa.

“ I told him several years back that I always thought of him as my cowboy uncle. He gave me a huge smile. I so enjoyed the time I spent on the Ehrenberg farm when I was a kid and always thought he and aunt Doreen were the greatest. I know he's missed her since she's been gone, and now we can celebrate their reunion in heaven., Just one of the cousins-Gail
