

Leonard Tschida

January 7, 1933 - September 2, 2007

Leonard was born January 7, 1933 in Pierz, MN to the late John & Mary Tschida. He grew up near Pierz and attended country school. After completing his schooling, Lenny helped his parents farm. He was united in marriage to Dolores O. Virnig on June 4, 1958 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Pierz. The couple were second generation dairy farmers and also raised chickens in Buh Township from 1958 until Lenny's declining health caused their retirement in 1993. Lenny served on the Buh Township Board as supervisor and town clerk for 22 years. He also was an officer for the Township Association for 10 years, fire warden and drove school bus for 28 years for St. Joseph's School. Since 1993, Lenny has resided at St. Otto's Care Center in Little Falls where he was president of the Twilighters Club. He enjoyed crafting, making sequence calendars and beaded wall hangers. Lenny also enjoyed watching TV and working jig saw puzzles. He was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Pierz.
