“ Less did so much for our family and everyone he met, he could light any room up and brought tears of laughter to anyone he was around. What a generous, kind, caring man, may God have mercy and he rest in peace with our Lord.

“ Leslie, was a misunderstood person, born into a family of ten children he was no.5, and you know what people say about the middle child. A very accomplish mechanical individual he was good at fixing automotive machines, he was an Airforce crew chief, in flight Engineer for General White in Dover Airforce base, also serving in Okinawa, Japan, he was in the top 5% in Tech school, scoring one of the highest scores along with his Dakota friend Johnson. He married the mother of his children, they shared many good times; but then something in his mind shifted his attitude and he became a different individual, moreover to become controlling and abusing, Marlene was a beautiful person and put up with all for herself and her family, she was loved by all, especially Sharyn and I, we'll miss her, and now Leslie is standing alone with just myself and a few others as bystanders and friends. Love your brother Louie, God have mercy
