“ A Promise Fulfilled
By Jerry Price,

Each day I give thanks to the good Lord above, for sending down his only beloved.

*This promise to man, he did fulfill,
to whom the sea and earth stood still.*

The word he shared, the stories he told, brought people together, both young and old.

*They came from afar and different places, filled hearts with joy;
smiles to their faces.*

He sat down in the cool of the day, to watch young children gather and play.

With wonders of whom this man could be, they pushed and shoved, and sat on his knee.

They sang and danced and shouted with glee, "Forbid them not, to come unto me."

I'm thankful for the Lord above, for sending down his precious Love.

This is, Hebrews 4:12

“ Linda, you and Jim were such a God sent to me as I was dealing with a horrible church. You were the only ones that were there for me. I thank God he sent you in my life. You were such a great lady to my children. You fit in our family perfect. You will be greatly missed. Love you, Linda. I know I will see that beautiful smile again.

“ Linda, you are missed terribly, but with your beautiful faith in Jesus, I know you are with him. I look around my house and see several items you got me! You were so loving and giving. So many friends, you never met a stranger! We have had so many great memories. I love you so much! We may not talked a lot on the phone, but when we did, it was just like we never stopped talking when we got back on the phone. How I am going to miss you my dearest friend! We will see you again....soon. Hug Jesus for me, go tell my mom and dad I love them and will be seeing them soon. A big void has broken my heart where you always filled it. I love you dear Linda!
Your friend, sister,
Sharyn
