

Lloyd C. Keehr

January 30, 1927 - November 21, 2012

Lloyd C. Keehr was born January 30, 1927 in St. Paul, Minnesota to the late Roy and Mabel Keehr. He met the love of his life Eva at the barn dance and on June 21, 1952 the couple was united in marriage. He was a farmer in the Fort Ripley area for many years until his retirement. Lloyd was known to enjoy a fast polka dance. He loved to play a good game of cards, like smear, double solitaire or 500. Lloyd delighted in winning "City Money". In recent years he was proud of being "the oldest" in the Keehr family and delighted in how old he was "gonna be" ... Lloyd was "gonna be" 86.

He is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Eva Marie (Lerew) Keehr; children, Elaine Jacobs, Steve Keehr, Beverly Tretter and Barbara Keehr; grandchildren, Jason Jacobs, Eric Keehr, Bryan Keehr, Eve Keehr-Hines, and Ella Keehr-Hines; great-grandchildren, Nathan Jacobs, Hannah Jacobs, Brooke Keehr, and Austin Keehr. Lloyd was preceded in death by his parents, Roy & Mabel Keehr and brother, Donald Keehr. Pallbearers will be Eric Keehr, Bryan Keehr, Darv Keehr, Jason Jacobs, Jim Knotts and Duane Welle.

Tribute Wall

“ Lloyd C. Keehr

January 21, 2023 at 11:59 AM

“ Our deepest sympathy to you Eva, Bev, Steve and Barb and all the famlies May God be with you in your time of sorrow. Julie and Howard##imported-begin##Juliann Doucette##imported-end##

November 23, 2012 at 10:41 PM