Lois Mable Wood was born on September 24, 1924 in Hillman, Minnesota to Herbert and Margaret (Logue) Wood. She was the middle child of five sisters. When the children were old enough to go to high school the family moved to Onamia, Minnesota. They began attending the Onamia Alliance Church where they were faithful members and workers for many years. After Lois graduated from high school she attended the Saint Paul Bible Institute, now known as Crown College. After her college graduation she accepted an Appointment of Ministry to a Native American Reservation in South Dakota where she served for five years. When she heard of an opening in the Alliance Jewish Mission in the Bronx of New York City Lois applied and was accepted. After several years the mission closed and Lois rented an apartment by herself in the Bronx and continued working with the Jewish people. After 27 years of ministry in N.Y. she returned to Onamia to care for here aging parents. Lois served in the church and in the nursing home as an employee and later leading devotions as a volunteer. She enjoyed her short stay at the Mille Lacs Health System Long Term Care Center visiting and praying for those who visited and helped with her stay.

Left to cherish her memory are her sisters, Ruth Alheim of Albany, NY; Jean (Ted) Poland of Brooklyn Park, MN; and many nieces, nephews, and loving relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Margaret and Doris.

“ This is my very special thank you to a great aunt who prayed for me many hours and because of those prayers and her love, I was saved and became a minister. Her example of always serving others, left a great impact on my life and the life of her family and friends. Aunt Lois was truly a Christian in every way. She will be greatly missed by all of us. I find comfort in knowing that she is heaven and I will see her again. I am praying that God will comfort all of hearts with His presence. I wish I could be there and celebrate her life. I will be there in spirit. THANK YOU AGAIN, AUNT LOIS!
