“ Thinking of all of you over the loss of your dear Mother. I have many fond memories when the Haggerty's and Lattimer's would get together, those were the days! Just a skip through the alley. Most recently I would see your Mom at the Legion playing bingo, always a smile on her face. Take care and God Bless you during this sad time.

She was a strong & honest woman. Her legacy will certainly live on with so many children & grandchildren that she was always so proud of. Please remember that we will always be right here with you to remember, reminisce, cry & laugh.*
