“ My sympathies and thoughts are with Lorraine's family. Her son, Roger, and I were best of friends during our childhood years. I spent much time with Roger during those years and remember the kind way Lorraine and her mother, Maxine, always welcomed me.

God's peace to all.

“ i remember the day danny was born, lorraines first grandbaby. she was right there with me and dannys dad, she was so excited. she planned The baby shower that very afternoon. and 7 days later it was held in her home, and i have to say of the 4 baby showers i had with my 4 kids, that one was the best, probably cuz it had so much love in it.

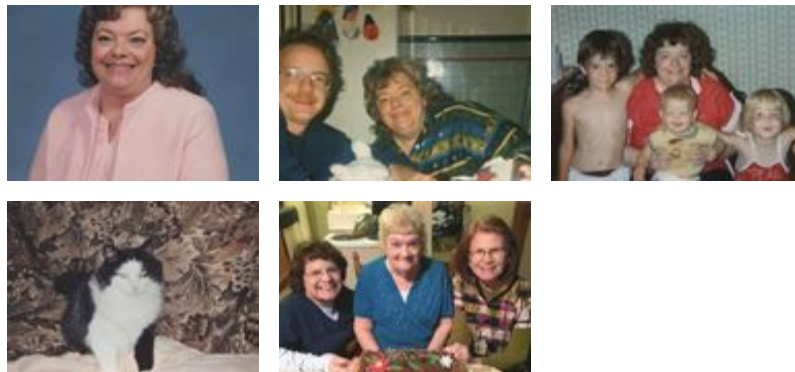

i am sure gonna miss you lorraine.
