“ I can recall the countless times when little and having a doctor appointments seeing Lucille and she always having a smile on her face, and would come out and say hi. I also believe I recall hearing her humming songs many times too. Lucille will be missed although her grace will be forever embraced. Rest In Peace!

“ I remember when I was a little girl, auntie Lucille and her sisters Sylvia and Annella (my mom) used to sing trios and it was beautiful. They sang like angels and now two of them are singing with the angels. I was blessed to know her. Love you!

“ As a young girl (12-13?), I had the privilege of being able to sing in the Holy Cross choir, alongside many cousins, mom, aunts and uncle, with Aunt Lucille as the choir director. We sang beautiful 4-5 part hymns and traditional Latin pieces that left a lasting love of that kind of music and fond memories. Thank you Aunt Lucille. ❤️ Sue (Cunz) Rogers

I used to call our little, but spectacular choir, the Von Trapp family singers. We were so young to gain appreciation for such classic and ancient music. Thank you for commenting.

RoseAnn, I remember when your family would come to visit and we would go for Sunday Mass and I was so proud of my Aunt Lucille because she sang so beautifully. She was a great lady.
