“ Oh, dearest Lyn, yes, Happy, how sorry I am that we can't meet up again here on our road less traveled. We'll meet again in that truly happy place. Make our Lord laugh a lot....you are just what He needs these days.....guess that's why he called you home.

To all your dear family, I know I can speak for the endless number of RVing friends she endeared. We are broken hearted and will miss her love, energy, smiles and wonderful times. XO Happy!

“ Lyn was my best friend during our time at Vocational School, Child Service Technology. She truly loved kids. We had great times together and made some great memories. She had wonderful smile on her face all the time and loved to laugh. She could make anyone happy and would do anything to help others. I admire her for the courage and independence she had in her travels around the country sharing her talents as "Happy" the clown, and most important her love for Jesus. What a blessing she must have been to all those people, who crossed her path. She will be greatly missed by all of us, but she has a new life now, and a new home with Jesus and all his angels. She is truly "happy", at peace, and whole as she watches over us with that wonderful smile. Like a butterfly, a new life, and she's free.

“ The Bell family was a very integral part of my first years of teaching. She was much too young to leave us so soon. Hugs and prayers to all.

“ I was so blessed when the Lord brought her to West Virginia as a part of our family here. Though time we spent together was short, it was some of the best time of my life. We talked, we laughed, did a little sight-seeing, created a little mischief together(or maybe a lot) but what or whichever it was they were all cherished times and I thank God that our lives became a part of each others. It is a happy sad that I feel knowing that she is no longer suffering in any way and take comfort knowing she is home with the Lord. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of the family and friends of this very special person. Anyone whose life she touched was truly blessed.

“ Lyn, I am so grateful that I got to know you and work with you. Park life was a little sweeter with you in it. I enjoyed working with you at Natural Falls State Park. You brought sunshine with you everywhere you went. Much love. Brandei Pepper-Oklahoma
