

Marcella M. Marsolek

February 8, 1925 - January 31, 2021

Marcella M. Marsolek, 95 year old resident of Albany, MN, passed away Sunday, January 31, 2021, at Mother of Mercy Assisted Living in Albany, MN. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11:00 A.M. on Friday, February 5, 2021 at Holy Cross Catholic Church in North Prairie, MN with Father Roger Klassen officiating. Burial will be at the Holy Cross Parish Cemetery in North Prairie. Visitation will be one hour prior to the service on Friday at the church.

Marcella was born on February 8, 1925, to the late Frank and Agnes (Opatz) Fussy. She married Dominic Marsolek on September 10, 1946 in St. Stanislaus Catholic Church in Bowlus, MN. Marcella and Dominic farmed for 25 years near Bowlus, MN. She was a member of Holy Cross Catholic Church in North Prairie, MN, and a member of the Christian Mothers. Her greatest joy was caring for her family. She loved to host get-togethers and eat, play cards, or play dominoes. She could cook up a storm and bake a mean Polish coffee cake. She ALWAYS made sure you never left her home hungry. Marcella and Dominic loved to spend time Up North at Pat and Linda's cabin enjoying nature at it's finest.

Left to cherish her memory is her son, Patrick (Fiancé Linda) of St. Anna, MN; grandsons, Cody (Darcy) Marsolek of Albany, MN, Clint (Taylor) Marsolek of St. Joseph, MN; great-grandchildren, Cole, Brodi, Kendall, and Connor.

Marcella was preceded in death by her husband, Dominic (2013); her parents; and siblings, Eleanor Solarz, and Lloyd Fussy.
