

Margaret L. Pelikan

December 11, 1934 - March 8, 2009

Margaret was born December 11, 1934, to the late William and Lydia Stockman. She grew up in Brainerd, MN and graduated from Brainerd High School. Margaret was united in marriage to Rueben Kazeck at Zion Lutheran Church in June 1953 in Little Falls, MN. The couple lived in Little Falls, MN until Rueben's death in 1973. In August 1978 Margaret married Otto T. Pelikan at Zion Lutheran Church in Little Falls, MN. and has resided in the Pierz area since that time. Margaret worked as a head start teacher in Little Falls for many years. The couple cared for over 60 foster children at their home. Margaret also operated a day care for some years. She enjoyed traveling quilting, crafting, jigsaw puzzles and reading. Margaret was extraordinary with kids. Her warmth, wit and creative personality was deeply appreciated by everyone who knew her. She also loved spending time with her family and grandchildren. Margaret was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Dixville.

Margaret is survived by her husband Otto; children Dave (Karen) Kazeck, Chisago City, MN; Doug (Cindy) Kazeck, Becker, MN; Dennis (Cindy) Kazeck, Cambridge, MN; Susan (Bob) Langerud, Little Falls, MN; Debbie (Don) Hayes, Hillman, MN; Joe Pelikan; step-children Fran Pelikan, East Bethel, MN, Terry (Perry) Butler, Ashby, MN; Erika Englund, Bloomington, MN; Tony (Bonnie) Pelikan, Boyceville, WI; Andrea Pelikan of Mora, MN; brother George (Adeline) Stockman, Lakeville, MN Rev. Bill (Wilma) Stockman, Garfield, MN; 22 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and many loving nieces and nephews.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents, first husband Rueben, brother, Melvin Stockman, sisters Dorothy Kazeck and Delores Taylor.

Pallbearers are grandsons Erick Kazeck, Luke LeBlanc, Stephen Kazeck, Nathan Kazeck, Ryan Smieja and Kyle Przybilla. Honorary pallbearers are her other grandchildren.

“ This message is for Margarets son Doug Kazeck
When I read the obit your moms name I felt was one I should recognize but did not then reading the MC Record and looking at her face I realized that this was your mom!!
I send you and your family my sympathy,love, and prayers on your loss of this wonderful and fanatastic lady
I always enjoyed your mom ,Doug. I took care of her a few times as a patient at St. Gabes over the years.
Again I am so sorry for your loss

“ Sorry to hear about your loss! I will always remember going over to Margaret to her place in the summer when I was little. She is now in a wounderful place with my father (Richard Kazeck) and my grandparents (Eldor and Dorthy Kazeck). Some day we will all be together again.
I will always remember her as a sweet and wonderful person.##imported-begin##Heat er Larson##imported-end##
