“ Dearest Margaret,

I have so many wonderful memories of spending time with you and your family when I was a child. There are so many things I will never forget: the lawn swing & playhouse, you baking bread (and making a mini loaf for me), the kittens in the barn, the little cabinet and chair that Martin made for Lisa and I , that we still have...I could go on and on! I do and always will love you. You are a very special to me and I will miss you always.

All my love,

Julie (Hauschild) Speer##imported-begin##Julie Speer##imported-end##

“ Oh, Mom, can you possibly even know how terribly much I miss you? I have this huge aching longing to visit with you again. When I think about you leaving on Christmas Day I remember all those Christmases in my past, as us kids grew up and left home for school, jobs, and the Navy, and how super important and special it was to get home for Christmas. You would always be at home and we would be the ones going home for Christmas so it certainly seems fitting that now, finally, you should get to be the one "Going Home for Christmas" and oh my, what a home it is! I love you so much...so much.##imported-begin##Mary##imported-end##

“ Margaret - What can I say? My heart hurts. But I know you were tired and your body no longer allowed you to do all the things you enjoyed most. You amazed me by keeping such a good attitude through it all. Oh sure, the days weren't perfect, but you handled it quite well. You were an awesome lady-truly my second mom. You raised a pretty good son as well-I think I will keep him. I thank you for being you - honest, humble, caring, witty, and undoubtedly strong in your faith. What a role model!! And I know you would never consider yourself that-but that's how I see you. I will miss you. And when that happens, I will try to picture you once again healthy and know you will never again need oxygen, that dumb wheelchair or any of that other equipment. Love you forever, Mary.

P.S. You and mom need to play Martin and dad in a game of 500- and show them that the "girls" rule. :)##imported-begin##Mary##imported-end## “ Margaret - You have always been so kind, sincere, non-judgmental, and caring...all of this wrapped with great humility - and that made you all the more grand.

I feel very blessed to have known you. Have you had a chance to have any 500 card games with Martin and my parents yet?

“ Can't even put in to words how much I miss you Mom and would so love to have you here. But, I know you are much healthier now and feeling no pain, able to get around without help and that has to be wonderful! Tell Lynette how I miss her too!##imported-begin##Dorothy##imported-end##
