“ I first had the pleasure of meeting Marjorie when we were ten years old. She and her Grandmother (my Aunt Agnes) came by Greyhound bus to Canada to visit my Dad George McGowan Agnes's baby brother. I believe they stayed with us for a week or two.

It wasn't until many years later when Marge and her husband were travelling to Alaska they stopped in Calgary to look me up. It was like we had known each other forever.... It was awesome. We did see each other many times after that and I always felt sorry we had missed all those years in between. My deepest sympathy to all of her family, she will be missed.
