On July 1, 2017, Mark married Jeanne Sengkeothanolith in Sartell, MN, beginning a life together that was filled with love, laughter, and shared dreams. Mark was a devoted father to Annika, and Kendall, and he took immense pride in the time he spent with them, always encouraging them to pursue their passions and embrace kindness.

A lifelong fan of hockey, particularly the Boston Bruins, Mark also found joy outdoors and long walks. His love for building intricate Lego models with his son, Kendall a hobby that reflected his creativity and patience.

Mark is survived by his loving wife, Jeanne Becker; mother, Bonnie Becker; cherished children, Austin, Atom, Annika, and Kendall; brother, Jonathan (Julie) Becker; and grandmother, Esther Knopik.
