Mark, I will always remember how you greeted every single family member as they arrived at a family function. You made everyone feel welcome. I will also remember how you sent me a whole bunch of scratch off tickets for the MN lottery so I would make endless supplies of Lemon Bars. Also i will never forget you taking all of your younger siblings to see Joan and Kevin in your Dodge sports car - you drove kinda like a maniac but always got us there safe. MOM always said don't fall asleep you need to keep Mark awake so he can drive. Thanks Mark, I have never been able to sleep in a moving vehicle. You will be missed so much. None of us are perfect but we are fortunate to have the loving family we do. see you.
