

Marlys A. Bucholtz

February 1, 1942 - July 18, 2007

Marlys was born February 1, 1942 in Buckman, MN to the late Henry & Helen Sporlein. The family moved to Chicago, IL when she was a young girl. She grew up in Chicago, graduated from high school and attended Harrington Institute of Design for three years, becoming an interior decorator. Marlys was united in marriage to William J. Bucholtz on November 30, 1963 in Chicago, IL. She owned and operated the Scandinavian Furniture Center in Chicago from 1976-1989. Marls, her sister, Sharon Uko and family, moved to the Harding, MN area in 1995 to care for their mother. Marlys enjoyed gardening and growing flowers. When she resided in Chicago, she often attended the theatre and art events. She also loved to entertain family and friends.

Marlys "Sporlein" Bucholtz is survived by her:

Husband, William J. Buckholtz of Chicago, Ill

Son: William T. Bucholtz of Harding, MN

Brother in law: Steve Uko of Harding, MN and nieces, nephews and friends.

Marlys was preceded in death by her parents, sister, Sharon Uko and an infant sister, Phyllis Sprolein.
