Maxine Arlou Wolff was born at home in Pope County, MN to Alfred and Lottie Mattson on September 3, 1945. She was baptized and confirmed in the Kensington Covenant Church in Kensington. Maxine grew up on a farm southeast of Kensington, MN and graduated from the Kensington High School in the class of 1963. She attended college at the University of Minnesota, Morris, and St Cloud State, majoring in music and physical education. Maxine was always very active in school and community activities, involved in 4-H, cheerleading, playing trumpet in high school and college band, and using her piano talents in church, school, and community events. Maxine was a farm girl through and through, spending many hours driving tractors and working with livestock in her teen years. It was there that she learned the value of hard work.

In the fall of 1963 at UMM, Maxine met Les Wolff and the two were married on July 3, 1966, at Kensington Covenant Church. While Les attended Pharmacy

College in Minneapolis, Maxine worked at the University of Minnesota Police Department in the parking division. After Les' graduation, the couple moved to Little Falls for a job opportunity and stayed to build a life and raise their three daughters. Maxine was a gifted church musician and accompanist for nearly 70 years. She wanted to share the love of Jesus in meaningful and memorable ways. She encouraged others to participate and express their faith through music by directing numerous Sunday School programs, youth musicals, the Youth for Christ singing group Voices in Praise (VIPS), The Savior Singers, adult choir church cantatas and helping many prepare special instrumental and vocal music for services. She continued to play piano and organ for services at Grace Covenant, First United Church and throughout the larger community. Maxine always worked hard and thus accomplished many things, working at numerous jobs and volunteering at many organizations. She loved working with 4-H and was active for over 25 years. She gave private piano lessons for over 30 years, teaching hundreds of students, and accompanied for many years of LFCHS solo/ensemble contest participants. She was co-owner of Wolff Drug and Gift stores for 24 years and was well-known for the holiday decorations in her home. Family meant everything to Maxine. You rarely saw Maxine without the best friend and love-of-her-life, Les, and daughter Kristi. She was a proud mom and grandmother, traveling to many concerts, ball games and dance recitals through the years. She loved black, white and red, and anything with a little sparkle, and loved to decorate and host gatherings of family and friends. People did not leave hungry.

Maxine is survived by her husband of 59 years, Leslie Wolff; her daughters: Kay Wolff of New York, NY, and Kristi Wolff of Little Falls; grandchildren: Cody (Michele) Hickman of Morris, Cassey (Kyle) Wittenburg of Wyndmere, ND, Calley (Nate Goff) Hickman of Alexandria, Correy (Brady) Birch of Jamestown, ND, and Cortney (Joey Krenz) Hickman of Norcross, Ella Wolff-Niewood of New York, NY and Benjamin Wolff Niewood of New York, NY; great-grandchildren: Beau, Annie, Brynne, and Myla Hickman of Morris, and

“ *Dear Les and family,
While I was sorry to hear of Maxine’s passing from this world, I rejoice with you in the hope we share as believers. I’ve already written to another that I write of those who go before is in the present; yes, they’re gone for now, but we will be reunited with them soon and forever in the the presence of the one who stands with us, even now.*

While it has been a long time since I sat with you, Maxine and your girls, you all left a lasting impression on me. I will continue to recall Maxine in her exuberance, her joy and her love. I know the Holy Spirit is with you and I have every confidence will continue to be the great Comforter to you in the coming days and weeks until you see Maxine again.
