“ Micah always was true to his word, if he said he'd be somewhere or do something with/for you come hell or high water & even if a tornado was approaching HEd BE THERE!!! I don't have just 1 memory because all of the times we spent together were GREAT & MEMORABLE.... To all of his remaining family, you are all in my thoughts & prayers. Also please try to remember this is not goodbye its only Until the next time.... May all of you find strength within each other & remember to accept the help that is being offered the people offering love & care about you & your well being....
