Michael was born on August 4, 1946, in Saint Paul, Minnesota, to Dolores (Robotnik) and Frank Jaworski. Mike served as a paratrooper medic in Vietnam, where he was awarded the Purple Heart and Bronze Star medals. He received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota. He worked as an occupational therapist, volunteering for several years with medical relief programs in Central America. Mike had many hobbies, including ceramics, painting, stained glass, and woodworking, and excelled in every one of them. He enjoyed working on these hobbies in Minnesota as well as Arizona, where he and his wife, Betty, spent several winters. Mike met Betty, one of his patients, while working as an occupational therapist. When given the choice of his job or Betty, he chose the love of his life, Betty. He chose wisely.

Mike enjoyed gardening, carpentry, sailing, and boating and was an excellent craftsman.

“ Mickael was a truly a hard worker and a craftsman. Having worked with him I saw this first hand. He once said to me, "you can tell a craftsman by how well he can fix his mistakes" May his soul be at peace in the hands of God.
