“ Joli and I went to school together and our parents knew each other too. My mother passed away in 1999 and Nancy reminded me a lot of my own mom. I was able to visit with her a few times when I saw her at my office at court because she had jury duty and it was like having visits with my mom...that was so neat! I have always kept Nancy in my prayers since Dick passed away. And, I will continue to keep Joli and all her siblings in my prayers. Even though were adults now, it sort of feels like you're an orphan when both parents pass away. I pray blessing for all the Nancy Schultz family. God Bless. Lynne (LeMieur) Umlauf

I got to know Nancy when we both were parishioners at St. Michael's Church in Motley. Three and a half years ago when my Mom moved to Diamond Willow in Little Falls I found out Nancy was also living there. Ever since then every time I visited my Mom I also visited with Nancy. She was such a delightful person. It will not be the same when I come into Diamond Willow and she is not sitting in her recliner watching who came through the door and seeing her delightful smile when I waved to her. God has a beautiful angel in his arms. My condolences to Nancy's family.
