“ Uncle Orville was such a unique person, I remember going to visit my mom, (Lucille Rocheleau) Orville and Lorraine came by to visit, Orville was telling one of his herford cattle stories to my hubby (Jerry) who was ill at that time and had fallen asleep in the chair next to him. I looked over at Orville and he winked and smiled, than I asked Orville, can you talk up some, I'm hard of hearing, with that Jerry's eyes were open, Orville and I had a little laugh over it, but he never missed a beat about that herford cow, and calf, We shall miss you Farmer Orville, may you lay your head and shoulders on grassey meadows, smell the flowers, and watch the skies in eternal peace. I love you, and give Mom, your sister and Grandma Mary and Christ, your Parents a great welcome, we miss you all. Love Connie###imported-begin##Connie O'day###imported-end##
