“ Patrick was my best friend. I will miss him dearly. I will cherish all the times you would come over and we would have laughs what a great sense of humor he had. You always brought a smile to my face we knew each other for over twenty years

“ Patrick was one of the most beautiful souls I've ever met!!! Him and his husband camped at my house last summer before they left for AZ. That was one of the best weeks of my life! Me and my kids and my sister and her daughter all crammed into that tent for horror flicks and laughs!! I will forever miss you my dear friend!!!

“ one of my favorite memories of Patrick was when I was staying with him out on county Road 47 and him and I didn't work that night and I decided to cook a nice supper and we just sat there and visited and talked for hours laugheda and cried ,@ funny moments reminiscing afterwards we went out for a drive and listening to music like old songs from like when we were in school and and of course of course we all know how Patrick is with music you know and I always having to add in his little extras and we just like sat there and changed like lyrics around all over the place and just joked around about it I mean at that moment our cheeks were hurting from so much laughing that was when I saw a side of Patrick that I rarely saw from him we talked about so many things in those hours and realized how important he really was to me and how much I was important to him cuz he shared so many things without judgment without criticism without malice he truly is a very special person he will always have a special place of my heart .One thing is certain I could always turn to him and it didn't matter when or what time it was this is how it was between us a friendship like that is very rare I truly don't know what am I going to do without my best friend this is truly one of the hardest moments in my life is to having say goodbye to somebody so close and dear to my heart I'm truly lost without him even though there was moments on your side and my side where we had several miles apart or didn't speak for a period of time but I've always had him in the back of my mind and in my heart and I knew if I really needed him or I really want to talk to him he was just a phone call away and when we did talk it was like we he never stop talking it was just yesterday can we just pick up where we left off or we would just start laughing and like we never stopped I truly miss you my my Peppermint Patty but at least I know you're with angels who are looking after you now and you're making them smile with your amusing personality and your beautiful smile God bless you Patrick RIP you know I'll see you again love you 💕 say hi to Ava pet her for me XOX
