“ John and I extend our deepest sympathies to all of you, Regina's beautiful family.
I am Regina's niece and have the honor of having her name as my third name because she was my confirmation sponsor. I shall never forget the soft touch of her hand, under my veil, as she touched my shoulder while the bishop stood before me and I was confirmed.
Several years ago, I visited her with my mother at her apartment in Pierz. She was so proud of her residence and was always dressed so beautifully in white. And, now, I shall fly home to see my mother and also attend my Aunt Regina's funeral.
